

Glenn Beck: I take back my apology to President Barack Obama

In July, 2009, during a Fox & Friends appearance, Glenn said President Obama had a 'deep seated hatred for white people or the white culture.' And the backlash was INTENSE. Glenn eventually apologized for the statement, but now, he's re-taking that initial stand. He says he's tired of not using the labels these Marxists TRULY deserve. Glenn says President Obama — who recently downplayed the dangers of critical race theory during a CNN interview — truly IS a racist Marxist if he believes that kind of curriculum is not detrimental to our kids or to our society as a whole. But rather than own up to the Marxist ideology he embraces, Obama refuses to correctly characterize his own opinions.
